No. 11—"Thundering Steeds" Death"

CASTING his lariat over a high branch, the Riddle Rider swings out and catches Nan just as her raft is swept over the brink of the falls. Later McLeod again duns Nan for his drifting ball and attach her property. In her frantic endeavor to obtain funds, Nan enters the main event, a stage coach race, in Old Home Week to win the prize of fifteen hundred dollars, enough to pay McLeod.

The Riddle Rider prevents Sarles' accomplices from hindering Nan's coach in the race, and Parker insists she gets a square deal. Coming down the home stretch, the axle of Nan's coach starts to smoke, the wheel comes off, and she is dragged by the terror-stricken steeds along along the rock-strewn road.
